MEMORANDUM FOR:

Inspector General's Staff

SUBJECT:

IG Field Reports on NE Division

25X1A9a

1. I refer to [redacted] memorandum of 31 December 1959, with attachments, which are returned herewith.

2. In the light of General Cabell's expressed desire that we take the IG views on [redacted] into account 25X1A2d1 in preparing our final recommendations on this Project, I have made two copies of the [redacted] No 25X1A6a copies have been made of the other reports, and they have been read only by [redacted] and myself. I would appreciate it, however, if you would attempt to release as much of these reports as possible, and as soon as possible, on a less restricted basis. The reports are full of recommendations for specific action, and I cannot act on them unless they can be shown to appropriate individuals in the Branch, our Support Staff, etc.
